

Community Training & Education Manager

AMRRIC is an established, national not-for-profit organisation based in Darwin. Our small team of dedicated staff deliver a diverse range of programs covering community and animal health and welfare, education and training, academic research, strategic planning and advocacy. We work with remote Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities to improve the health of their pets, helping to create healthier, safer and happier communities.

AMRRIC is recruiting to the role of Community Training & Education Manager. The successful applicant will manage the organisation and delivery of AMRRIC's education programs working with a range of diverse stakeholders. The position will work closely with AMRRIC's Community Education Officer and veterinary Program Management staff. The role requires someone who can demonstrate flexibility and problem-solving capabilities in their approach to delivery, including strong communication skills for implementing modified plans on the go. This is a full time, contract position based in Darwin, with remote and interstate travel required. Demonstrated experience working in remote locations and strong organisational and communication skills are essential. Experience in the Vocational Education and Training sector is also essential.

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander candidates are strongly encouraged to apply.
