Join an organisation with an unbreakable belief that quality education, training and research should be available to everyone – regardless of background, location or life circumstances.

As a passionate member of the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Community, you will teach and provide leadership in Indigenous education for our students across the Education and the Arts Discipline. Your honest passion for making defined contributions to further the education of our students will see you gain job satisfaction from imparting your knowledge and experience to the future Indigenous education leaders in Australia.

You will support students through the delivery of culturally specific lectures, seminars and workshops, as well as the development of highly engagement unit materials and contemporary assessment that aligns directly to our rich Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander history and culture in Australia.

If you have a passion for supporting students to achieve their dreams through their undergraduate and post graduate studies in Indigenous Studies, then please enquire now and change student lives in all kinds of amazing ways.
