

Senior Project Officer

About us

At LXP, we're not just removing level crossings, we are removing barriers and creating legacies for our communities for years to come. Inclusion is a priority for us and we are committed to creating an employee community that reflects those in which we work.

- We value our role as leaders to actively increase female representation in the transport sector through practical support, professional development and exposure to career opportunities.
- We are proud leaders and participants of internship programs that provide opportunities to people who identify as LGBTIQ, people living with a disability, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islanders, refugees or asylum seekers or people from low socioeconomic backgrounds.
- We offer and encourage flexible work practices and purchased leave arrangements for all of our employees to support wellbeing, family or carer commitments or other personal circumstances.
- We place great importance on growth, empowering our people to enhance their knowledge, capability and experience through continual learning, formal training and lessons learned.
- Health, safety and wellbeing are at the heart of what we do. We focus on the physical, mental and emotional wellbeing of our people to create a safe and healthy workplace for everyone, every day, everywhere.

About the role

As part of a dynamic and results-driven team you will deliver programs for LXP's Industry Capability & Inclusion team and its' Training for the Future program partners. This role will contribute to the implementation of initiatives and be responsible for developing and coordinating capability programs to ensure the transport infrastructure industry can attract candidates across a diverse range of cohorts.

About you

You will have a strong sense of purpose in helping the project deliver on transforming the way Victorians live, work and travel. To be successful in this role, you will have an innate ability to communicate well with and relate to people from a diverse range of cultures and backgrounds. You will have experience in managing multi-faceted work and employment programs. Your extensive experience developing effective stakeholder relationships and your strong influencing and negotiation skills will see you succeed in this role. We are an inclusive employer and strongly encourage applications from Aboriginal people and people with a disability.

What next?

If we've sparked your interest, go to levelcrossings.vic.gov.au/careers to apply. Introduce yourself by submitting a cover letter and CV. Tell us why you're interested and what capability you bring. That's enough, we do not need you to provide key selection criteria. We encourage you to identify if you belong to an Aboriginal community or have a disability in your application.
