

Wurringa Baiya Aboriginal Women's Legal Centre

3 x Fixed Term Positions:

1 Aboriginal Family Violence Support Worker (3 days a week) Feb – November 2021

1 Aboriginal Family Violence Support Worker (4 days a week) Feb – June 2021

1 Aboriginal Access Worker (2 days a week) Feb – October 2021

All positions are identified for an Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander woman pursuant to sections 14 & 31 of the Anti-Discrimination Act, 1977 NSW.

Wurringa Baiya is a NSW state-wide, gender specific community legal centre. The Centre specialises in working with with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander women, children and youth.

Wurringa Baiya is seeking expressions of interest for the above positions. Interested applicants are required to have some knowledge and understanding of issues which affect the Aboriginal community, specifically in relation to the impact of domestic and family violence upon women and children. Personal and/or professional knowledge and experience will be taken into consideration.

The rates of pay will vary depending on the position and the level of experience of the applicant. Wurringa Baiya is located in Marrickville, NSW.

Applicants must have a driver's licence.

For more information in relation to the work we do, please visit our website: www.wurringabaiya.org.au. If you would like to know more about the positions, please contact the office on (02) 9569 3824 or email Christine Robinson at c.robinson@wurringabaiya.org.au.

Applications close: Wednesday 17th February 2021.